

Fraud/Scam Alert

December 2023

We are aware that a number of suppliers have recently received false communications purporting to come from a representative of Grafton Group plc or Grafton Group (UK) plc.

We are aware of the following email addresses currently being used by senders, however other email addresses may be used:

info@graftongroupplc.com

groupgrafton@gmail.com

Please note that emails from the above addresses are not issued from Grafton Group plc or any of its subsidiaries and Grafton has no connection to these senders.

If you have any concerns about the legitimacy of any communication purporting to be from Grafton, please refrain from responding directly to the communication and instead contact us at email@graftonplc.com to confirm its legitimacy.
