Dividend Withholding Tax (DWT)

(as provided for by Chapter 8A, Part 6 of the Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997 - “the Act”)

EXEMPTION FROM DWT FOR A Qualifying Non-Resident Individual

IN RESPECT OF RELEVANT DISTRIBUTIONS

Please refer to Notes on Page 2 for guidance on completing this form

The residence certificate which supports this exemption declaration form is valid from the date of issue of the certificate to the 31st day of December in the fifth year following the year in which the certificate was issued, i.e. the certificate is valid for the year in which it is signed plus five full calendar years after that. Once completed the form should be forwarded to relevant Paying Company / Qualifying Intermediary / Authorised Withholding Agent so that exemption can be put in place. Please note the form should not be sent to the DWT Unit for the purpose of gaining ‘exemption-at-source’.

The information in this document is provided as a guide only and is not professional advice, including legal advice. It should not be assumed that the guidance is comprehensive or that it provides a definitive answer in every case.

DWT UNIT, August 2021

Notes

1. A “qualifying non-resident person” may receive relevant distributions from companies resident in Ireland without the deduction of DWT where the qualifying non-resident person is beneficially entitled to the relevant distributions and where a declaration has been made to the “relevant person”. For the purposes of this form a “qualifying non-resident person” is
  - an individual who is neither resident nor ordinarily resident for the purposes of tax in Ireland and who is resident for the purposes of tax in a “relevant territory”.
2. A “relevant person” is defined as:
  - a company resident in Ireland which makes a relevant distribution directly to the person beneficially entitled to the distribution;
  - a qualifying intermediary, where the relevant distribution has been made indirectly to the person beneficially entitled to the distribution via that qualifying intermediary;

in addition, where relevant distributions are made via an authorised withholding agent, that agent effectively steps into the shoes of the company and is the “relevant person” in relation to the distributions.

The Revenue Commissioners maintain a list of qualifying intermediaries and authorised withholding agents. If you want to find out whether the intermediary you wish to use in relation to relevant distributions has been authorised by the Revenue Commissioners for the purposes of the Act please consult the Revenue website at:

<https://www.revenue.ie/en/companies-and-charities/dividend-withholding-tax/index.aspx>

3. An exemption from DWT can only be obtained where a completed declaration has been given to the “relevant person”.

If the declarant is dealing directly with the Irish paying company, please forward this completed declaration to that paying company.

If the declarant is making this declaration via a qualifying intermediary or an authorised withholding agent, please return the completed declaration to that intermediary or agent.

4. A “relevant territory” is defined as:
  - a country (other than Ireland) which is a member of the European Union, or
  - a country with which Ireland has a Double Taxation Agreement.

For up-to-date information on the countries with which Ireland has a Double Taxation Agreement, please consult the Revenue website at -

NOTE:

This blank form may be photocopied for use in relation to subsequent declarations. However, in all cases, declarations must be signed and dated by the declarant in ink to establish that the declaration is original. Please also retain a copy of this form when completed, as it may assist you in claiming a refund of DWT deducted in certain circumstances.
